
MONUMENT TO MUSIC -- New York's Carnegie Hall, familiarly known as the Old Lady of 57th Street, was sketched by an artist of the mid-1920's as crowds converged on it for a concert. Newly refurbished, the buff-colored building with Florentine motifs celebrates its 75th anniversary in the 1966-67 season. (60-15380. Accompanies Arts and Men column F-66-358.)

NO
LEFT TURN
CARNEGIE HALL
COFFEE SHOP
CINEMA
NO
LEFT TURN

Carnegie Hall,
courtesy of the Carnegie Hall Corporation circa 1973, confirmed 1975 by R.E. Greenwood

Front (north) and side (west) elevations

CARNEGIE HALL
CARNEGIE HALL

Carnegie Hall, circa 1973
courtesy: Carnegie Hall Corporation

verified: 1975
R.E. Greenwood

Front (north) facade